Hi Edwin,

I would like to purchase an instrument for application testing. I was reviewing the data and I would like to know if C18475127G is available? According to the records it passed final manufacturing tests on 4/10/2018.

My plan is to do some application testing and then return it back to stock. I will be going through our borrowed inventory process.

Please let me know if this is available and I will provide you with an account number.

Thank You,
